

KARI ANDERSON

Keynote Speaker | Nonprofit Strategist

Kari gets nonprofits because she's been there. She has literally sat in your seat and walked in your shoes as a nonprofit staffer, fundraiser and executive director. She serves on boards and immerses herself in the wild and wooly world of nonprofits as the Founder of Incite! Consulting.

She gets that there is no playbook for how nonprofits operate because of all the unique challenges. She gets the hustle to raise money. She gets how challenging it is to keep a board happily engaged. She gets that you can feel like the weight of the world rests unrelentingly on your shoulders. She gets how loud you want to celebrate your successes.

Kari brings this experience and empathy to her presentations, along with clever humor and authenticity. She works to make sure other nonprofits can build their organizations with strong leadership, efficient operations, storytelling and a healthy dose of fun.

Kari has worked with the Idaho Nonprofit Center, Montana Nonprofit Association, Central Washington Conference for Greater Good, Utah Nonprofit Association, Community Foundation of Jackson Hole, Community Foundation of Teton Valley, Community Foundation of North Central Washington and The Sherwood Trust to present inspirational, educational and entertaining topics.

“Since hiring Kari, our team is more focused and more cohesive.”

Robyn Nance, KXLY

“Her insights allowed our board to thoughtfully process how their specific actions can be THE difference between a mediocre organization and a high-functioning team.”

Vicky Scharlau

“Kari connects with people and gets them excited to do the work they are so passionate about. She puts passion into action!”

Cody Sinclair, Sheridan Hospital
